

Collier's HEATING & AIR CONDITIONING Community

Successful Chili Cook-off! Thank you!

We would like to take this space to thank everyone who helped make our chili cook-off a success. We ended up raising over $1,400 for Friends Who Care Cancer Relief Foundation of Wells County. This money will go straight to local residents of Wells County who have been diagnosed with cancer to help them pay bills, purchase medications, pay for gas to make it back and forth to appointments among other things.

We are so appreciative of our community coming together to support this nonprofit who is very near and dear to our hearts. See you all next year!

Congratulations to Jon Sherburne from Welches Auto Repair for taking home the first place spoon! Also, thank you for donating your winnings back to Friends Who Care. We appreciate you!

How can you help Friends Who Care?

Play it safe! Furnace safety tips to get you through the cold weather.

Cold weather is upon us. That means that furnaces will be kicking on, and furnace safety should be top of mind. Below are some furnace safety tips to protect you and your family through the cold months.

- Schedule your annual tune-up. Tune-ups are essential if you want to have the peace of mind that your furnace will run safely all winter long!
- Test your carbon monoxide detectors. A carbon monoxide leak is one of the biggest safety threats that a malfunctioning furnace can pose to your health.
- Test your smoke alarms. Certain severe furnace problems can lead to fire hazards.
- Keep the area around your furnace clear. You can help minimize the chance of fire hazards from your furnace by keeping the area around your system clear.
- Change your air filter when it's dirty. A dirty air filter will restrict airflow to your furnace, which will overwork your system and potentially increase the risk of a carbon monoxide leak. In addition, a dirty filter will allow dirt to build up on your furnace's components, which can cause a number of efficiency, performance and safety issues.

Happy Thanksgiving
